

Aspects of Quality Control in the Microbiological Laboratory

NATA's two day 'Aspects of Quality Control in the Microbiological Laboratory' course is designed to provide participants with a thorough understanding of the elements required for Quality Control in a microbiological laboratory. Click here to download a detailed course outline.

Rating: Not Rated Yet

Price

$ 1210.00

Ask a question about this Course

Description

Non-Members: $1,353.00 (including 10 % tax)

Members: $1210.00 (including 10% tax)

Length: 2 days

Download the detailed course description

COURSE OBJECTIVES

On completion of this training course, participants will be able to:

- Effectively manage a culture collection to meet the laboratory's requirements
- Establish and maintain a comprehensive quality control system for media preparation and purchased media
- Prepare test method documents which comprehensively describe the laboratories test methods of relevant quality control procedures
- Organise and monitor proficiency testing programs
- Develop verification and validation protocols for new methods introduced into the organisation

COURSE OUTLINE

NATA's two day 'Aspects of Quality Control in the Microbiological Laboratory' course is designed to provide participants with a thorough understanding of the elements required for Quality Control in a microbiological laboratory. Click here to download a detailed course outline.

To read an article featuring course developer and presenter Dr Stuart Andrews, please click here.

If you have any questions please contact:

NATA Training Services Group

Phone: 1800 621 666

Email: trainingservices@nata.com.au